Ben Cooper is Senior Vice President in the Private Loan Management Group at KeyBank. Ben is responsible for underwriting, originating, and structuring loans in the utility and power industry, as well as monitoring and maintaining existing client accounts. His primary focus is renewable project finance, but he also works extensively with cooperative and utility clients.

He joined Key in 2015 after 8 years of experience at Fitch Ratings. During his time in Fitch's Global Infrastructure and Project Finance Group, Ben worked with deals primarily in the power industry, as well as in transportation, sports finance, industrial and oil & gas. He co-authored Fitch's criteria report for onshore wind projects.

Ben holds a BA in Economics from the University of Chicago and an MBA from Case Western Reserve University's Weatherhead School of Management.
